

Dear Jane,

I enjoyed chatting with you yesterday. I am so thrilled to be partnering with the doctors who created Proactiv, as they now do for aging what they did for acne.

As we discussed, I am building my business in New York (or wherever they live), and across the country! I am looking for referrals for people who: want to try the products and get on their journey to the best skin of their life; or want to join us in business and change their financial future. I would coach them how to achieve their goals, all while earning really great perks (bonuses, luxury trips, and a free Lexus).

Take a few minutes to watch our Doctor's share the Rodan + Fields business model:

Hear what's possible with Rodan + Fields. Watch my business partner's 3 minute success story. If a shy kindergarten teacher can do it, imagine the potential!

Feel free to pass these links on via email, or to post them on Facebook. I would welcome introductions to those who may express an interest in our products and business model.

I have a very generous Referral Rewards Program. Anyone you refer on who joins me as a Preferred Customer or a Consultant will earn you rewards: either a product of your choice, or a cash bonus as a "finders fee"! Contact me for more details.

Thank you for your time and willingness to help!

Sincerely,
Sarah
